KENTUCKY CLEAN FUELS COALITION

Clean Fuels and Technology News

Deadline Nears for KY Green Fleet Awards

Submit Data By November 1, 2012

The deadline for KY Green Fleets is approaching fast. Submit your data to be recognized for your efforts to improve the environmental performance of vehicle fleets across Kentucky by reducing petroleum use.

GREEN FLEETS OF THE BLUEGRASS

For more information click here, Green Fleets of the Bluegrass.

Kentucky Department of Education Announces Cycle 6 RFA for Hybrid School Bus Program

HYBRID HORSEPOWER FOR KENTUCKY SCHOOLS

Call for grant applications!!! Proposals Due November 15th

This week, the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) announced cycle 6 RFA for the hybrid bus program. The KDE has received about $12.98 million in funding for project proposals from school districts to purchase approximately 213 diesel/electric hybrid school buses.

National Odyssey Day at Elizabethtown Community and Technical College

The Volt was on display and available for test drives Thursday October 18th when the Elizabethtown Community and Technical College hosted National Odyssey Day. Odyssey Day is celebrated around the country focusing on alternate fuels vehicles and advanced technologies.

Elizabethtown's Odyssey Day also featured the TARC hybrid bus, Larue County hybrid school bus and Irvington Gas propane truck among the many vehicles.

Southeast Fuels Fix Magazine

Click here to view the newest edition of Southeast Fuels Fix Magazine!!!

Get the newest Clean Cities Coalition updates, the Flux Report, and much more.

Volt on UK Campus

Emily Davis, KCFC Intern, stands next to the Volt and newly erected Wildcat sculpture on the UK campus

KCFC News is a newsletter for KCFC members and interested parties.
If you have a news item you would like to share, please send it to kycleanfuels@insightbb.com.
For more clean fuel news and resources, visit www.kentuckycleanfuels.org