Intern Selected to Assist with KCFC Programs: Welcome Emily Davis!

Emily Davis

August 17, 2012 - KCFC is excited to announce our new intern for the Fall 2012 semester -- Emily Davis. This internship is funded through the Argonne National Laboratory's Clean Cities University Workforce Development Program.

Emily Davis is a graduate student at the University of Kentucky's Patterson School studying Diplomacy and International Commerce. Her coursework has included Energy Security, Energy Resource Laboratory, and visits to regional energy-related sites. This summer she worked as an intern in Metro Louisville's Office of Sustainability.

Emily's primary role will be to assist with KCFC's outreach efforts to establish partnerships with secondary educational institutions.
