

Clean Fuel & Technology News

Natural Gas in the Bluegrass Initiative Launched

The KCFC today officially launches a one stop resource for Natural Gas projects, programs and policy occurring in Kentucky. This program will provide specific details, photographs, points of contact and much more. Check it out at www.kentuckycleanfuels.org/resources/naturalgas/naturalgas.htm

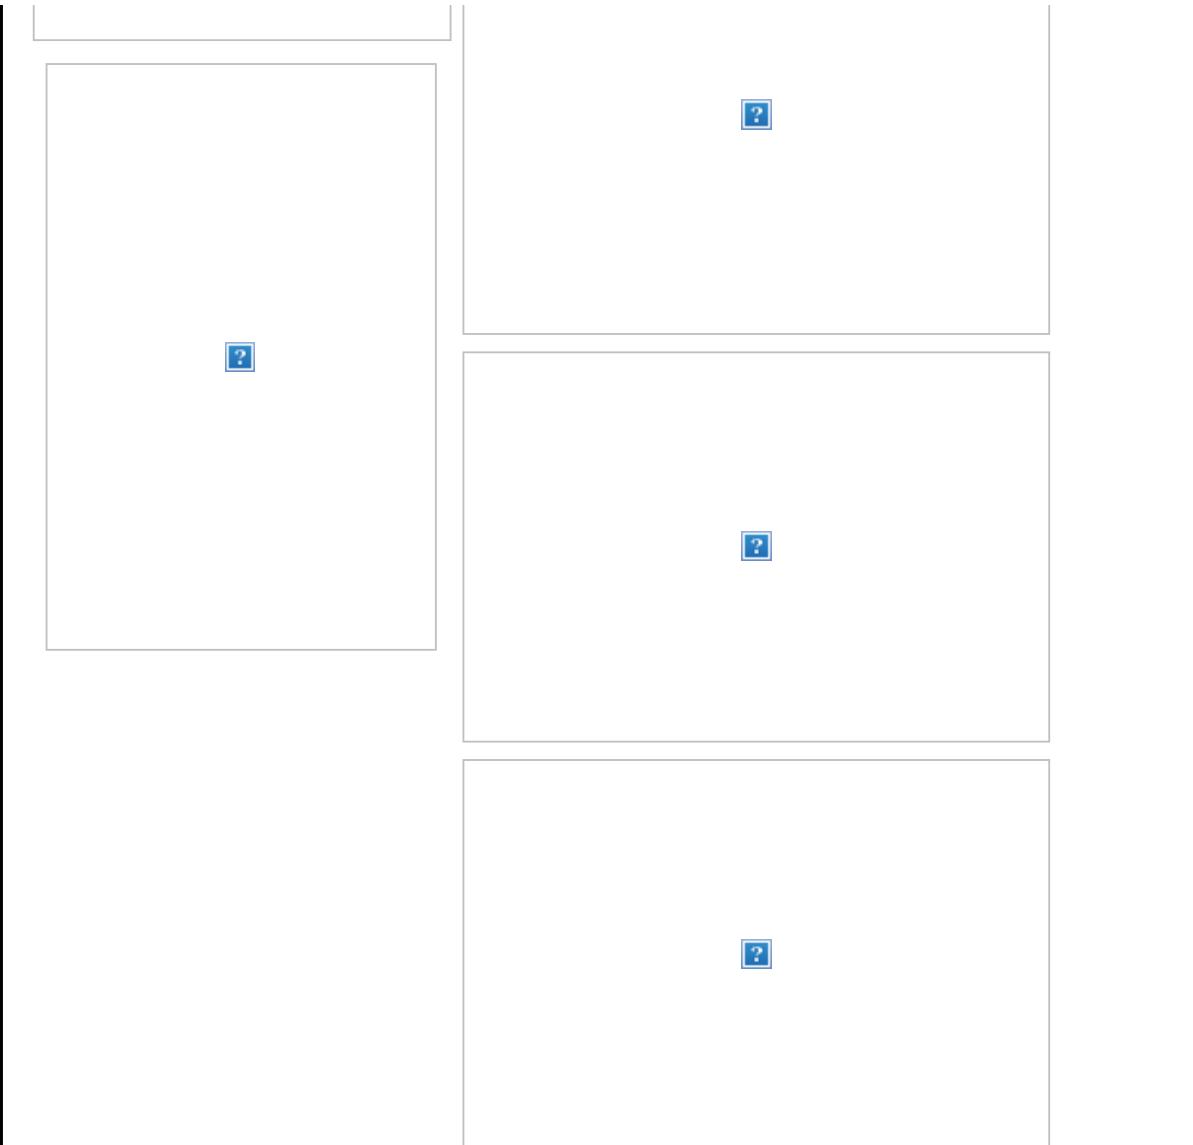

Somerset Fuel Center Using CNG

The City of Somerset began CNG refueling at the city fleet fuel center, 244 Chappells Dairy Road.

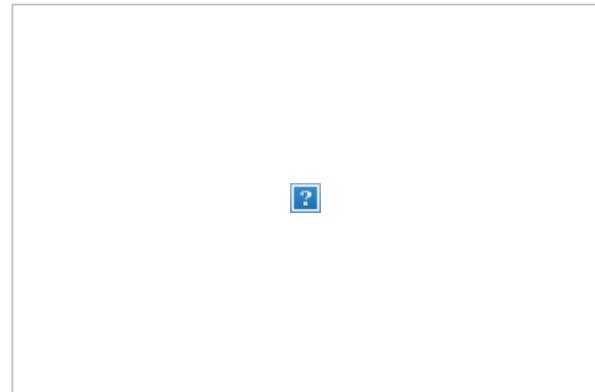

Mayor Ed Girdler noted a recent round trip to Lexington costs "less than $4". They have purchased a Honda Civic and have two Ford F- 250 pick up trucks on order. They have a lease purchase agreement with Phoenix Energy, Birmingham for the three storage tanks, a compressor and slow fill unit that provides up to 4200 psi.

The site is available for public refueling upon request.

Left: City Engineer Reggie Chaney, Fuel Center Manager Janet Wilson, and Mayor Ed Girdler

KCFC Notes

Green Fleets Best Practices Resources

In follow up to last week's successful Green Fleets of the Bluegrass webinar, Best Practice resources are now available on the Kentucky Clean Fuels Coalition website at: <http://www.kentuckycleanfuels.org/greenfleets-bestpractices.pdf>

KCFC Executive Director Melissa Howell will be making a presentation to the Kentucky Special Subcommittee on Energy, July 20, in Frankfort.

REGISTER TODAY: Compelling Case for NGV's Workshop

July 31, 2012
Crowne Plaza Airport, Louisville, KY

The full day workshop will be presented by the Clean Vehicle Education Foundation and co-hosted by KCFC, Kentucky Division of Air Quality, Louisville Metro Air Pollution Control District, Kentucky Energy and Environment Cabinet, Kentucky Gas Association, and the Kentucky Department of Energy Development and Independence.

Stephe YBorra with CVEF has presented this curriculum style workshop over 59 times across the country to over 6,000 people. Fleet managers, technicians, electricians, policy writers, municipalities, utilities, all government fleet representatives will be able to visit with the industry's best vendors, teachers, equipment manufacturers, gas sales folks and more.

KCFC News is a newsletter for KCFC members and interested parties.
If you have a news item you would like to share, please send it to kycleanfuels@insightbb.com.

For more clean fuel news and resources, visit www.kentuckycleanfuels.org.