2015 Vehicle Buyers Guide Now Available

For years, consumers and fleet managers have relied on the annual Clean Cities Vehicle Buyer's Guide as a comprehensive and unbiased source of information on alternative fuel vehicles (AFVs). The 2015 version of the guide is now available and provides valuable help with navigating the many options being offered for AFVs.

About Us

The Kentucky Clean Fuels Coalition was established in 1993 to provide the first alternative fuels resource for Kentucky educators, consumers and providers of alternative fuels/vehicles. It is now a successful non-profit 501C3 self-supporting organization and a national leader in the clean fuels market.
